THE EVENING HERALD. ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

Use a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

LOCAL LUNCHEON.

Picnics are plenty. Half the year gone. Backberries are ripening. Big potato crop in prospect. The moon is in her last quarter now. Because you feel good is no reason you are.

This month the annual camp meeting season will begin. Shenandoah might have had a Fourth of July demonstration if it had tried.

Are you going away on the Fourth or will you spend a quiet day at home? It will be in the dark of the moon and fire works will show well on the night of Fourth.

When lightning tries to be funny it is very liable to make even the strongest look split sides.

Two things that won't harmonize: The small boys and the prohibition against shooting fire crackers.

M. C. Reinhold, Esq., was appointed examiner in the divorce proceedings of Emma Barnard vs. John Barnard, of town.

Business Locals.

B. F. Landig and Fred. Hooks have formed a partnership and are now conducting on North Main street the book and stationery business heretofore controlled by Mr. Landig individually. Messrs. Landig and Hooks are energetic young men well qualified for the business.

Dabb, the photographer, has been turning out some excellent work in his line of business. One of his latest successes is an excellent photograph of the B and O decorations in the P. M. church on Decoration Day.

Completed to Deadwood.

The Burlington Route, C. & Q. R. R., from Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis, is now completed, and daily passenger trains are running through Lincoln, Neb., and Custer, S. D., to Deadwood. Also to Newcastle, Wyoming. Sleeping cars to Deadwood.

Coming Events.

July 4—Grand Carnival and picnic by Columbia Hose Steam Fire Engine Company.

July 29th.—Festival and entertainment; Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Silver Wave Circle, A. O. U. M. C.

Playing Cards.

You can obtain a pack of best quality playing cards by sending fifteen cents in postage to P. S. Easta, Gen'l Pass. Agt., B. & O. Q. R. Chicago, Ill.

A Yankee Sheriff Frightened.

A well known sheriff, living in Maine, was given up to die with what his physician called Consumption, a friend advised him to try Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure, recovery followed, and the doctor now uses it for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. Trial bottles free at Kirin's drug store.

Fireworks.

Fire crackers and fine exhibition pieces will be sold at Max Reese's store, Ferguson House building, West Centre street, at wholesale prices. Call there before going elsewhere. 6-25-11. MAX REESE.

Best work done at Brennan's steam laundry. Everything white and spotless. Lace curtains a specialty. All work guaranteed.

Do you suffer with Consumption, Coughs or Colds? You can be cured if you take Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure. 25 and 50 cents. Trial bottles free at Kirin's drug store.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Fig, to cleanse the system when constive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

More Jurors.

The following additional jurors from Shenandoah have been drawn to serve for September and October: Thomas Maxwell, William J. Morgan, William Krick, Daniel Bailey, Elmer Wasley, P. J. Mulholland, James Grant, George C. Heckman, Thomas Dove, Howell Samuels.

Delegates Elected.

J. H. Kurtz and Daniel Richards will represent Washington Camp, No. 185, at the State Camp of the P. O. S. of A., to be held at Gettysburg in August. H. E. Denlinger, Harry Arsgood and S. L. Brown will represent Camp 112. Camp 396 will have no representatives.

The Columbia's Picnic.

On Saturday next, the Fourth of July, the Columbia H. & S. F. E. Co., No. 1, of town, will have its grand carnival and picnic. The carnival will be one of the best the company has ever held, as no time or expense is being spared by the committee. The picnic, which will be held at Columbia Park, will be an extraordinary affair and one that will repay its patrons.

Sudden Dissolution.

Two Polanders recently purchased the saloon in the basement of the Mellet building at the corner of Centre and Market streets, each putting in $400 to make up the purchase price, $800. The men seemed to get along well together and apparently doing a good business. One of them had a wife and two small children. The other was single. On Monday last the married partner, in whose name the business was conducted, secretly sold out the business to another countryman for $600 and shipped out leaving his wife and two children as assets for the single partner. The latter says the deserted wife is a nice woman and he will keep her and the children until the suspected partner returns with his $450.

P. O. S. of A. Election.

At a regular meeting of Camp 112, P. O. S. of A., held last evening, the following were elected to fill the offices for the ensuing term: P. P. B. Arsgood; P. J. H. Koster; V. P., Benj. Parrott; M. of P. & G., Colfax Brown; Conductor, William Neiman; Secretary, C. R. Coase; Assistant Secretary, S. L. Brown; Treasurer, H. E. Denlinger; Inspector, S. J. Trengoe; Outside Guard, Harry Haffner; Chaplain, John Bitler; R. S., G. L. Hafner; L. S., C. N. Baddal; Trustee, W. R. Wilde; Charter Trustees, John G. Thomas; Delegates, S. L. Brown, H. E. Denlinger, Harry Arsgood; Alternates, John Bitler, C. H. Sampel, G. L. Hafner.

Displeased.

The St. Clair correspondent of the Republican writes that paper as follows: The people of the town are very much displeased with the action of Pottsville papers in trying to fix the date of the dedication of the Pottsville monument for September first. Nearly a year ago the Sons of America, at a convention in Shenandoah, decided to celebrate America's Day on this date and the fact was published and well known then and since. The parade and celebration are to be held in St. Clair and should the newspapers succeed in directing the Monumental Association as to date, both affairs will suffer. Some arrangement must be arrived at by which all parties may attend both. Why not make the monument dedication on Thanksgiving day?

FOURTH OF JULY

Excursions on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

In pursuance of the usual custom the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets for the Fourth of July holiday between all stations on its system east of Pittsburg and Erie, at a rate of two cents per mile.

The tickets will be sold on July 3d and 4th, and will be valid for return until July 7th, 1891, inclusive.

SHOULD BE SEEN.

The Grandest Production That is Possible to Behold.

The old adage says "that nothing succeeds like success" and so the Siege of Sebastopol, at Harrisburg, has mounted the topmost wave of prosperity and, despite the few postponements through rain and storms, it is progressing on its way in a truly phenomenal manner. It is a grand display of all that is attractive to the eye of the beholder. It combines those grand elements that catch the fancy from the start and enchants the attraction from the very first. The struggles on land and water, the grand display of militia and the fierce and awe-inspiring bombardments reach the highest standards and are the realization of great dramatic movement. The concluding display of fireworks is gorgeously brilliant and goes far ahead of anything the Pains have ever given heretofore. The remarkable series of performances are fast drawing to a close and as every advantage is offered to the public in the way of low excursion rates, and return trains that leave Harrisburg at the close of the performance the entertainment, should not be missed under any circumstances.

The Secret of Success.

C. H. Magenbuch, the druggist, believes that the secret of success is perseverance. There are few who persist in keeping the finest line of perfumery, toilet articles, cosmetics, drugs and chemicals on the market. He especially favors all persons who have palpitation, short breath, weak or irregular pulse, pain in side or shoulder, oppression, nightmares, dizziness, trembling, dropsy or heart disease to try Dr. Miles' Restorative New Heart Cure, because it is so safe. It has the largest sale of any similar remedy. Fine bottles of Restorative New Heart Cure are dispensed free. Dr. Miles' Restorative New Heart Cure is guaranteed for sleeplessness, headache, fits, etc., and it contains no opiates.
